1. INTRODUCTION

Garrion People's Housing Co-operative recognise that introducing a flexible working policy will help to ensure compliance with the right to request flexible working brought in by the Employment Act 2002 and Work and Families Act 2006. The policy has also been introduced to help ensure equality and fairness throughout the process and aid employees work life balance. Employees have the right to request changes to their working hours or place of work under the statutory right in the Employment Rights Act 1996 to request flexible working.

2. BACKGROUND

GPHC believe its staff members are its most valuable asset and is committed to attracting and retaining the very best and utilising all talent and experience available. GPHC understand that it is important for staff members to establish a work – life balance as many individuals have personal responsibilities outside from work. Flexible work may allow more freedom for employees to organise their employment to fit in with other parts of their life.

3. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

Employment Rights Act 1996

In August 1996 the Employment Rights Act was introduced to set out statutory employment rights of workers and employees.

Employment Act 2002

In April 2003 the Employment Act introduced the right for parents of young and disabled children to apply to work flexibly in order to strike a better balance between their home and work responsibilities.

Work and Families Act 2006

The Act builds on the right to request flexible working introduced in April 2003. The Work and Families Act extends this right to include employees who care for or expect to care for adults.

Flexible Working Regulations 2014

These regulations further extend the right to request flexible working to employee's who have 26 week's continuous service with an employer.

Employment Relations (Flexible Working) Act 2023

These regulations reduced the waiting time to make a flexible working request from 26 weeks employment to a day one right as well as allowing for 2 requests to be made in a 12 month rolling period and reducing the time to respond from 3 months to 2 months.

4. POLICY PRINCIPLES

- The policy has been produced to ensure compliance with the Co-op's legislative requirements;
- Aims to provide workers with the opportunity to request to change their standard working arrangements to strike a better balance between their home and work responsibilities and for GPHC to retain talent and skills in the workforce and react effectively to changing market conditions;
- Details the flexible working procedure that must be followed and provides standard letter templates and forms to use;
- Is only applicable when the employee instigates the request to work flexibly (and not when it is instigated by the employer);
- Re-emphasizes a desire to create a good place to work for everyone by aiming to retain skills and experience and adapting to changes in society.

5. ELIGIBILITY

Under provisions set out in the Employment Rights Act 1996 every employee has a right from day one of employment to request a change to their contractual terms and conditions of employment. An employee has the right to make 2 flexible working requests within a rolling 12-month period.

General

To be eligible, staff members must:

- Be an employee;
- Not be an agency worker;
- Not have made more than 2 applications to work flexibly under the right during the past 12 months.

6. TYPES OF FLEXIBLE WORKING

Some examples of flexible working are documented below, however please note this list is not exhaustive.

Part time working

A system whereby the employee is contracted to work fewer than the standard full-time hours. There are many variations to part time working such as later start or earlier finish times, afternoons or mornings only and fewer working days in the week.

Job-sharing

An arrangement whereby two part time (or occasionally more) employees share the responsibility of a position. In a 'shared responsibility' arrangement the individuals both carry out all the duties of the job simply by picking up the work where the other employee left off. A 'divided responsibility' arrangement is when the duties of the position are divided between the two individuals, with each being able to provide cover for the other as and when necessary.

Term time working

The employee remains on a permanent contract but can take unpaid leave of absence as agreed.

Working from home

An approach whereby an employee carries out a proportion of his/her duties from home rather than on the Co-op's premises.

Compressed Hours

A system permitting employees to work their total number of contractual hours over fewer working days. For example, a five-day working week may be compressed into four days.

7. FLEXIBLE WORKING PROCEDURE

GPHC, aim to deal with requests as soon as possible and within 2 months of first receiving the request, including any appeal.

If for some reason the request cannot be dealt with within the 2-month period, then the employer can extend this time limit provided the staff member agrees.

Application for flexible working

To apply for flexible working, employees need to follow the steps below:

- Apply in writing;
- State the date of the application, the change to working conditions the employee is seeking and when they would like this change to come into effect.
- State that it is a statutory request;
- State whether a previous application has been made to GPHC and the date of the application;
- Sign & date it.

Once the request is received

If employers are happy to accept the change requested, they can confirm it in writing without a need for a meeting. Alternatively, a meeting should be arranged.

The Meeting

- Employee will be invited to a meeting in writing and informed they can be accompanied by a fellow employee or trade union representative of their choosing;
- At the meeting, the employee's proposal will be discussed;
- If the employee's proposal is not suitable to the business, alternative solutions will be discussed;
- If an employee fails to turn up for a meeting without prior notification on more than one occasion and fails to provide a satisfactory explanation, GPHC will treat the application as withdrawn. This will be confirmed in writing informing the employee this will constitute one of their statutory 2 flexible working requests they have a right to make in a rolling 12 month period;
- After the meeting the manager will inform the employee of their decision in writing, along with all details of the change.

Flexible working Acceptance

- Once both sides have agreed to the changes requested. Or an agreed variation of the request, a permanent variation of the employee's terms and conditions will be issued. The employee has no automatic right to return to the original arrangement;
- A trial period for a specified time may be applicable to establish if the new arrangement is suitable for the needs of the business. This will be confirmed in writing following the meeting and acceptance.

Flexible working rejection

If the employee's application is declined, it will be confirmed in writing, specifying the business reasons for rejection.

One (or more) of the following reasons may apply:

- 1) Burden of additional cost;
- 2) Inability to reorganise work amongst existing staff;
- 3) An inability to recruit additional staff;
- 4) A detrimental impact on quality;
- 5) A detrimental impact on performance;
- 6) Detrimental effect on ability to meet customer demand;
- 7) Insufficient work for the periods the employees proposes to work;
- 8) A planned structural change to the business.

Withdrawal of application

GPHC can treat an application as withdrawn under the statutory provisions where the employee has:

- Notified GPHC, verbally or in writing, that the application is withdrawn;
- Without a reasonable explanation failed more than once to attend a meeting or appeal meeting;
- Refused to provide GPHC with information required in order to assess whether the contract variation should be agreed to.

Appeal Process

An employee no longer has the automatic right to appeal but GPHC may consider hearing the appeal as best practice.

- The staff member can appeal against the Co-operative's decision to refuse an application;
- The appeal should be made in writing to a named manager of at least one level higher than the manager who made the original decision if possible and then a meeting will be held to discuss the appeal and any options available;
- The employee will be informed they can be accompanied to the meeting by a fellow employee or trade union representative of their choice;
- After the meeting, the employee will be notified in writing, confirming the grounds for decision.

8. RESPONSIBILITIES

Both the employee and the employer have certain responsibilities within this procedure as follows below:

Employee's responsibilities

- To provide a careful thought out application;
- To ensure their application is valid by checking that all the eligibility criteria are met and that they have provided all necessary information;
- To ensure the application is made well in advance of when the change is proposed to take effect;
- To arrive at meetings on time and to be prepared to discuss their application in an open and constructive manner;
- If necessary, be prepared to be flexible themselves in order to reach an agreement with the employer;
- If the employee wishes to be accompanied by a representative, the employee must ensure that their representative can attend on the date proposed by the employer or an alternative date within the time frame previously stipulated.

Employer's responsibilities

- To consider requests thoroughly and in good faith in accordance with the set procedure;
- To deal with requests as quickly as possible and within 2 months;
- To decline a request only where there is a recognisable business ground and to explain to the employee why it applies;
- To ensure that any variation of the procedure is agreed in advance with the employee and recorded in writing;
- Not to subject an employee to detriment or dismissal for making a flexible working request.

9. GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS

The Co-operative will treat your personal data in line with our obligations under the current data protection regulations and our own GDPR policy. Information regarding how your data will be used and the basis for processing your data is provided in the Garrion People's Housing Co-operative's employee privacy notice.

10. EQUALITIES & DIVERSITY

The Co-operative is committed to Equal Opportunities and will endeavour to ensure that all services are carried out in an undiscriminating manner in line with the Co-operative's Equality and Diversity Policy.

In particular, the Co-operative will not discriminate on the grounds of age, disability, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, gender, gender reassignment or sexual orientation.

We seek to embrace diversity, promote equal opportunities for all and eliminate any unlawful discrimination in all areas of our work.

11. POLICY REVIEW

This Policy will be reviewed on a 5 yearly basis or earlier if the legislation changes to ensure that its aims are being met.
